

Barack Obama: From Boy to President - A Journey of Hope and Change

Barack Obama was born in Hawaii in 1961. His father was a Kenyan economist and his mother was a white American anthropologist. Obama's parents divorced when he was two years old, and he was raised by his mother and her parents in Hawaii. Obama attended Columbia University and Harvard Law School, and after graduating, he worked as a community organizer in Chicago.

In 1996, Obama was elected to the Illinois State Senate. He served in the state senate for eight years, and in 2004, he was elected to the United States Senate. Obama's election to the Senate made him the first African American to represent Illinois in the Senate since Reconstruction.
