A powerful and moving memoir about a Chinese woman's journey to find her place in the world.

Growing up in a small village in China, Xiaolan never felt like she fit in. She was always the odd one out, the one who was different. When she was 18, she decided to leave her home and come to the United States to find a new life.

But life in the United States was not easy for Xiaolan. She struggled to learn English, she was lonely and homesick, and she felt like she didn't belong anywhere. But she refused to give up. She worked hard, she made friends, and she eventually found a place where she felt at home.

Xiaolan's story is a powerful reminder of the challenges that immigrants face, but it is also a story of hope and resilience. It is a story that will inspire everyone who reads it.
