

Date Me, Bryson Keller: An Unforgettable Coming-of-Age Story

About the Book

Date Me, Bryson Keller is a compelling coming-of-age story that follows Bryson Keller, a high school junior who is struggling to come to terms with his sexuality and his place in the world.

Bryson has always been an outsider. He's overweight, he's not particularly popular, and he's never had a boyfriend. But when a new student, Kai Sheridan, arrives at his school, Bryson starts to feel like he might not be as alone as he thought.

Kai is everything that Bryson is not: he's handsome, athletic, and popular. But he's also kind and compassionate, and he sees something in Bryson that no one else does.

As Bryson and Kai spend more time together, they start to develop a close friendship. But as their friendship grows, so do Bryson's feelings for Kai. Bryson knows that dating Kai would be a risk, but he's willing to take it if it means finally being happy.
