Origins and Setting

The story of "Avatar: The Last Airbender" takes place in a world divided into four nations: the Air Nomads, Water Tribes, Earth Kingdom, and Fire Nation. Each nation has unique customs, cultures, and bending abilities, the power to control one of the four elements: air, water, earth, and fire. The Avatar is the only individual capable of mastering all four elements and maintaining balance between the nations.

One hundred years before the start of the series, the Fire Nation launched a war to conquer the other nations and establish a global empire.
