About the Book

Mermicorns: The Invisible Mix Up is an enchanting tale about the power of friendship and imagination. When Marina the mermaid and Celeste the unicorn accidentally swap their magical objects, they must work together to restore balance to their worlds.

Marina is a kind and curious mermaid who lives in the Coral Kingdom. Celeste is a playful and mischievous unicorn who lives in the Enchanted Forest. One day, Marina and Celeste meet at the edge of the forest and decide to trade magical objects. Marina gives Celeste her seashell necklace, which allows her to breathe underwater. Celeste gives Marina her unicorn horn, which allows her to fly.

But when Marina and Celeste try to use their new magical objects, they realize that something is wrong. Marina can't breathe underwater with the unicorn horn, and Celeste can't fly with the seashell necklace. They soon discover that they have accidentally swapped their magical objects!

Marina and Celeste must work together to find a way to switch their magical objects back. They travel through the Coral Kingdom and the Enchanted Forest, facing challenges and obstacles along the way. But with their friendship and imagination, they are able to overcome anything.
