Celebrate 40 Years of Gridiron Greatness

Relive the thrilling victories, heartbreaking losses, and unforgettable moments that shaped Notre Dame Football's journey through the 21st century in this 40th Anniversary Edition from University of Notre Dame Press.

From the legendary leadership of head coach Lou Holtz to the dynamic offenses of Charlie Weis and Brian Kelly, Notre Dame Football has captivated fans worldwide with its tradition of excellence and unwavering spirit.

In this meticulously researched and beautifully illustrated book, acclaimed sportswriter Tim Ryan chronicles the Fighting Irish's remarkable journey through the past four decades.

- Witness the birth of the "Golden Era" under Lou Holtz, who led the Irish to a National Championship in 1988.
- Relive the thrilling comeback victory over Florida State in the 1993 Fiesta Bowl, a game that cemented Notre Dame's status as a college football powerhouse.
- Follow the highs and lows of the Weis and Kelly eras, including the undefeated 2002 season and the heartbreaking loss to Alabama in the 2013 BCS Championship Game.

Featuring exclusive interviews with players, coaches, and administrators, Notre Dame Football: The Irish in the 21st Century offers an unparalleled look behind the scenes of one of the most storied programs in college football history.

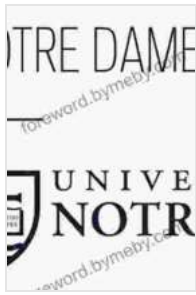

This 40th Anniversary Edition is a must-have for any Notre Dame fan, sports enthusiast, or lover of great storytelling.
