The novel tells the story of Cedar Hawk Songmaker, a young Native American woman who is struggling to come to terms with the loss of her father. Cedar is a talented artist, but she is also haunted by memories of her childhood and the violence that she has witnessed. As she tries to find her way in the world, Cedar must confront her own past and the ways in which it has shaped her.

Erdrich's writing is lyrical and evocative, and she creates a vivid and immersive world for her characters. Cedar is a complex and relatable protagonist, and her journey is both heartbreaking and inspiring. Otherwise
