Tel Aviv, the vibrant and cosmopolitan capital of Israel, is a city of contrasts. It is a city of light and shadow, of beauty and darkness. And it is this darkness that is explored in Tel Aviv Noir, a new anthology of original noir fiction from Akashic Books.

Featuring 14 stories from award-winning authors such as Ayelet Gundar-Goshen, Dror Mishani, and Yossi Klein Halevi, Tel Aviv Noir takes readers on a journey through the city's hidden alleys and backstreets, where crime and corruption lurk beneath the surface.

In "The Camel Market Kid," by Ayelet Gundar-Goshen, a young woman is drawn into a dangerous world of drugs and violence when she tries to help a homeless child. In "The Body in the Park," by Dror Mishani, a detective investigates the murder of a young woman in a Tel Aviv park, and uncovers a web of secrets and lies.

In "The Rabbi's Daughter," by Yossi Klein Halevi, a rabbi's daughter is kidnapped, and her father must race against time to find her before it's too late. In "The Tel Aviv Fix," by Assaf Gavron, a group of friends get caught up in a dangerous scheme to smuggle drugs into Israel.

These are just a few of the stories that make up Tel Aviv Noir. They are stories of crime and violence, but they are also stories of love, loss, and redemption. They are stories that will stay with you long after you finish reading them.

If you're a fan of noir fiction, then you won't want to miss Tel Aviv Noir. It's a gripping, gritty, and unforgettable collection of stories that will take you on a journey through the dark side of the White City.
