By John Perkins

In his international bestseller Confessions of an Economic Hit Man, John Perkins shocked the world by revealing the existence of a clandestine group of corporate operatives who are hired by the world's richest countries to manipulate and plunder the developing world. Now, in The New Confessions of an Economic Hit Man, Perkins returns with a chilling exposé of how the world's richest countries continue to plunder the developing world through a new generation of economic hit men.

Perkins reveals how these new economic hit men are more sophisticated and more effective than their predecessors. They are no longer just corporate mercenaries who bribe and blackmail foreign leaders. They are now highly educated professionals who use their expertise in economics, finance, and law to create and exploit loopholes in the global economic system. They are able to manipulate exchange rates, rig elections, and privatize public assets in ways that benefit their corporate clients and harm the people of the developing world.

The New Confessions of an Economic Hit Man is a devastating indictment of the global economic system. Perkins shows how the system is rigged in favor of the rich and powerful, and how it is used to exploit the poor and vulnerable. He also shows how the system is ultimately unsustainable and is leading to a global crisis.

The New Confessions of an Economic Hit Man is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the true nature of global capitalism. It is a powerful and disturbing book that will open your eyes to the dark underbelly of the world.
