A Spine-Chilling Synopsis

Carly Beth, a bright and adventurous 12-year-old, is thrust into the heart of a nightmare when she and her friends visit Horrorland, the amusement park where terror reigns supreme. Amidst the eerie attractions, Carly Beth's curiosity leads her to a dusty old curio shop, where she discovers a seemingly innocent mask hidden among the forgotten relics. Little does she know that this innocuous-looking object holds a dreadful secret that will forever alter her life.

As Carly Beth dons the mask, a chilling transformation takes hold. Strange and inexplicable occurrences begin to haunt her, leaving her questioning her sanity. Shadows dance in the corners of her vision, whispers echo from the depths of her nightmares, and her reflection in the mirror becomes a grotesque caricature of itself. Carly Beth soon realizes that the mask is far from ordinary; it is a conduit to a malevolent entity that thirsts for her soul.
