The 13th Warning

By R.L. Stine

Rating:□□□□□

In the quaint town of Willow Creek, nestled amidst whispering willows and shimmering streams, a chilling mystery unfolds. As the summer heat intensifies, a series of menacing warnings appear, each one more sinister than the last.

Twelve-year-old Greg Trenton, a curious and adventurous boy, finds himself ensnared in a web of fear and uncertainty. With each warning, he delves deeper into a labyrinth of secrets and hidden dangers.

From a cryptic message scrawled on a bathroom mirror to an ominous phone call in the dead of night, Greg navigates a treacherous path, desperately trying to decipher the sinister pattern that threatens his safety and the well-being of those around him.

As the clock ticks relentlessly, the warnings escalate in intensity, leading to a chilling confrontation that will test Greg's courage and unravel the truth behind the malevolent force that haunts Willow Creek.
