Meet Jack Hartigan, a cynical private investigator drawn into a world of art, deception, and danger. As he delves deeper into a missing persons case involving a renowned painter, he uncovers a web of intrigue that threatens to consume him.

Amidst the vibrant art scene of Minneapolis and the frigid expanse of St. Paul, Jack encounters a cast of enigmatic characters: a seductive art dealer, a troubled artist, and a ruthless crime boss. Each holds a piece of the puzzle that Jack must assemble to uncover the truth.

As the investigation spirals, Jack's own demons rise to the surface. Haunted by a tragic past, he must confront his inner darkness to survive the icy grip of the case.

Ink and Ice is a gripping noir thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from start to finish. Its intricate plot, vivid characters, and stunning imagery will leave a lasting impression long after you close its pages.
