

Where Have You Gone Ernie Banks, Andy Pafko, Ferguson Jenkins, and Other Cubs?

Once upon a time, the Chicago Cubs were the most lovable losers in baseball. They had a colorful history, a passionate fan base, and a charming ballpark called Wrigley Field. But for over a century, they couldn't win a World Series.

That all changed in 2016, when the Cubs finally broke their curse and won the World Series for the first time since 1908. The city of Chicago erupted in joy, and the Cubs became the darlings of baseball.
