

Witness the Indomitable Spirit Amidst War: A Journey of Love and Faith in Lebanon

A Tale of Love and Resilience in the Heart of Beirut

In the bustling metropolis of Beirut, a city steeped in history and resilience, a captivating story of love and faith emerges amidst the scars of war. The year is 1982, and the city is engulfed in a brutal conflict that threatens to tear it apart. Amidst the chaos and uncertainty, two souls find solace and strength in each other's embrace.

Najwa, a young Lebanese woman, embodies the spirit of her nation. With her piercing eyes and unwavering determination, she navigates the treacherous streets of war-torn Beirut, seeking hope amidst the despair. Fate brings her to the doorstep of Samir, a compassionate doctor whose heart aches for his beloved city.
